LOST, STOLEN OR STRAYED—F. W. Broadword took out a party on Wednesday, consisting of L. D. Burke, J. L. Sparrenton and Harry Nichols, to survey a route for the Strahorn railroad that would bring it into the Clover Leaf City.

Broadword drove his new Reo and arranged to meet the party at Whiskey Creek (forgetting that Oregon had gone dry). He waited from 2 o'clock in the afternoon till 8:30 that night, and had to come home alone.

The party of "surveyors" eventually arrived at Beatty, and Walter had to go and fetch them Thursday morning.

Watch for announcement of a great banquet for Strahorn.

J. B. Reed is going out to his homestead, about twenty-seven miles north-east of town, for the summer. He will engage in dairying while out there. He has rented 320 acres adjoining his own 160. He is taking about twenty cows with him.

Jack Frost has been busy up here the last few days, and the wind has been very high, blowing out quite a lot of seed. One consolation: Land is going up, but not out of sight.

Jake Hickman is a proud man these days. He has a lot of land cleared and seeded on his homestead. He says grubbing sage brush and piling rocks gives him an appetite for breakfast.

DR. F. M. WHITE

Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat

207 Odd Fellows' Building

Jan. M. Kyle of Umatilla county, candidate for the republican nomination for Public Service Commissioner from the Eastern Oregon district, is away in the lead in the present surface indications. It is confidently asserted by his friends that he will get as many votes in the counties south of the Blue Mountains as any one of the other five candidates, and west of Umatilla county he will run far ahead of any other man on the ticket, while in Umatilla county he will poll as big a percentage of the republican vote as did Judge Bean when he ran for the Supreme Court.

This is an important office, and it will be a great advantage to Eastern Oregon to have a man as well qualified and capable as Mr. Kyle on the board.

Mr. Kyle has been a big shipper for the last twenty-five years in Oregon, and thoroughly understands the needs and requirements of both the shipper and the producer. He is a level-headed business man, and will fill this important position with honor to himself and satisfaction to the people. No better man than Mr. Kyle could possibly be selected.—Adv.
